We confirm that DNVGL Type Approval process is currently underway in respect of the above battery charger. Type Approval Certificate 5475808 HH will be replaced by new Type Approval Certificate.

It is fully anticipated that DNVGL Type Approval status will be attained for these products. As such, DNVGL has no objection to the use of the above products on vessels requiring DNVGL Class approval, the Type Approval process to be concluded prior to the delivery of the vessels.

This letter is only valid as long as the type approval certificate is not issued by DNVGL.

Sincerely
for Det Norske Veritas B.V.
